NOTICE

This is to inform all the borders of Girls' Hostel, Cooch Behar Government Engineering College (CGEC) that Girls' Hostel will be closed from next 05.01.2022. The hostel was opened from 1st December, 2021 in spite of a number of operational constraints in a makeshift arrangement as per decision made by the Hostel Affairs Committee, HoDs and the Principal keeping in mind the circumstances of female students since offline lectures were being conducted by respective departments and outside campus accommodation was not favoured by the students. It is to be noted that the Girls' Hostel at present is operational with limited arrangements only. Thus, to reevaluate the present situation, a meeting was held on last 23.12.2021 between the Principal, the Registrar, all HoDs and Hostel, Academic and Student Affairs committee members of the college. It was informed by all the HoDs that no more offline classes is scheduled hence forth for this ODD semester 2022. Moreover, the university already notified about online mode of examination. Under that situation, it was decided unanimously that Girls' Hostel will remain closed as of now until further notice keeping in COVID situation as well since approval of the necessary manpower is still awaited along with other existing problems related to maintenance (notified earlier).

Thus, as per resolution of the meeting of Hostel, Students and Academic Affairs Committee with the Principal, Registrar and HoDs of Cooch Behar Government College and as directed by the Principal, CGEC this notification is circulated for the kind information of the students and necessary action.

Under such situation, all the borders who are staying at present at the Girls' Hostel, CGEC are therefore instructed to make it convenient to vacate the hostel on or before 05.01.2022. Re-opening of the Girls' Hostel will be notified at an appropriate time.
